Sarah Anne's COOKING CLASS

December is the busiest and most exciting month of the whole year. Plan early for the festivities that are going to take place so that you can really enjoy them when the time arrives.

These recipes will please the most fastidious guests.

Sticky Rolls

2 potatoes cooked and mashed
1 package yeast softened in a little warm water
2 cups flour
1 cup sugar
1-2 cup butter or margarine
2 eggs well beaten
Raisins
Nuts
Chopped citron

Add yeast to almost cool potatoes. Mix well and allow to stand overnight. In the morning add flour and let rise 1 hour.

Then add sugar, butter and eggs. Knead in enough additional flour to make dough not quite as stiff as for bread. Let rise 1 hour.

Roll out the dough fairly thin, spread with softened butter, sprinkle with raisins, nuts and citron. Roll into a roll. Cut off pieces about 3 inches long.

Place in a pan buttered and sprinkled with brown sugar. Bake in an oven 400 degrees for 5 minutes then reduce heat to 350 degrees and cook 15 minutes.

Fruit Salad Plate

Lettuce
Pineapple slices
Cottage cheese
Whole sections of oranges
Whole sections of grapefruit
Seedless grapes
Cherries
Melon balls
Ripe olives
Celery hearts
Mayonnaise
Fruit salad dressing

Arrange a large lettuce cup on each serving plate. Add a pineapple slice and top with cottage cheese.

Alternate section of oranges and grapefruit, slightly overlapping the cheese mound. Add 2 clusters of grapes, cherries and melon balls. Garnish each plate with a ripe olive and celery.

Pass mayonnaise and the clear fruit dressing.

Charlotte Russe

7 egg whites
1 pint whipped cream
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin
1-2 cup milk
Lady fingers
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1-2 teaspoon almond extract

Beat egg whites stiff and add to the whipped cream which has been sweetened with the cup of sugar. Soften gelatin in the milk until dissolved. Add slowly to the cream mixture. Add flavoring.

Line mold with lady fingers, pour in half of mixture, then a layer of mixture. Pour in rest of mixture.

This dessert may be made any color by adding vegetable coloring.

Wassail Cup

1 cup sugar
1 cup water
6 whole cloves
1-4 teaspoon allspice
Piece of cinnamon, 2 inches
1-2 tablespoon grated lemon peel
1 tablespoon grated orange peel
1 tablespoon finely chopped candied ginger
1 tablespoon ginger syrup
3-4 cup orange juice
1-2 cup lemon juice
1 quart cider
4 eggs well beaten
4 large baked apples pressed through a sieve

Simmer water and sugar, add cloves, allspice, cinnamon, lemon peel, orange peel, chopped ginger, ginger syrup, orange juice, lemon juice, and cider. Bring to a boil, strain and gradually pour over the eggs. Simmer in a double boiler until slightly thickened. Add pulp of baked apples.

Serve hot or cold.

HOLIDAY GARLAND

NO JOY IF IT IS

'SMOKE WREATH'

West Point.- A holiday wreath is no joy if it 's a wreath of smoke over Virginia forests.

On this note, Virginia's woodusing industries issued a reminder today that care in the woods is the only way to protect one of our most important natural resources.

The state's fire record during the fall has been a good one, but Carl Olsson, chairman of the Virginia Committee of American Forest Products Industries, emphasized that the woods may be dry and that care must be taken to keep out destructive blazes.

The chairman pointed out that nearly one fifth of Virginia's industrial payroll is derived from forest-dependent industries, and that in some communities a wood-processing industry is the main source of income.

"Industry foresters," he said, "are doing their best to assist the state Division of Forestry in making our record a good one.

"But we need help. Hunters, others going into the woods should watch their matches, cigarettes and campfires."

Many citizens recognize the danger and are pledged to fight it, but they cannot do the job alone, the industry man declared.

"Let's not mar the season by completing our forest resources," he said. "Let's keep the last wreaths on our front doors."
